Pezzettino - Leo Lionni 2012-01-10

A classic fable about the search for identity, from Caldecott Honor winning picture book creator Leo Lionni. Pezzettino lives in a world in which everyone is big and does daring and wonderful things. But he is small, just a "little piece," which is the meaning of pezzettino in Italian. "I must be a piece of somebody. I must belong to someone else," he thinks. How Pezzettino learns that he belongs to no one but himself is the joyous and satisfying conclusion to this beautiful mosaic style picture book.

Frederick - Leo Lionni 2017-01-17

Leo Lionni's Caldecott Honor-winning story about a little mouse who gathers something unusual for the long winter is turning fifty! Celebrate this beloved favorite, which now includes a special introduction from noted children's book historian Leonard Marcus. Winter is coming, and all the mice are gathering food . . . except for Frederick. But when the days grow short and the snow begins to fall, it's Frederick's stories that warm the hearts and spirits of his fellow field mice. Winner of a 1967 Caldecott Honor, Frederick has been cherished by generations of readers. "A splendid achievement." —School Library Journal, starred review "In Frederick, a mouse who is a poet from the tip of his nose to the end of his tail demonstrates that a seemingly purposeless life is indeed far from that—and that we need not live by bread alone!" —Eric Carle

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time - Mark Haddon 2009-02-24

A bestselling modern classic—both poignant and funny—narrated by a fifteen year old autistic savant obsessed with Sherlock Holmes, this dazzling novel weaves together an old-fashioned mystery, a contemporary coming-of-age story, and a fascinating excursion into a mind incapable of processing emotions. Christopher John Francis Boone knows all the countries of the world and their capitals and every prime number up to 7,057. Although gifted with a superbly logical brain, Christopher is autistic. Everyday interactions and admonishments have little meaning for him. At fifteen, Christopher's carefully constructed world falls apart when he finds his neighbour's dog Wellington impaled on a garden fork, and he is initially blamed for the killing. Christopher decides that he will track down the real killer, and turns to his favourite fictional character, the impeccably logical Sherlock Holmes, for inspiration. But the investigation leads him down some unexpected paths and ultimately brings him face to face with the dissolution of his parents' marriage. As Christopher tries to deal with the crisis within his own family, the narrative draws readers into the workings of Christopher's mind. And herein lies the key to the brilliance of Mark Haddon's choice of narrator: The most wrenching of emotional moments are chronicled by a boy who cannot fathom emotions. The effect is dazzling, making for one of the freshest debut in years: a comedy, a tearjerker, a mystery story, a novel of exceptional literary merit that is great fun to read.

The Best of Me (Movie Tie-In Enhanced Ebook) - Nicholas Sparks 2015-01-20

WITH FEATURETTES FROM NICHOLAS SPARKS AND THE MOVIE CAST, DELETED SCENES, MUSIC VIDEO, AND MORE! IN THEATERS OCTOBER 17, 2014! Starring Michelle Monaghan, James Marsden, Luke Bracey, and Liana Liberator "Everyone wanted to believe that endless love was possible. She'd believed in it once, too, back when she was eighteen." In the spring of 1984, high school students Amanda Collier and Dawson Cole fell deeply, irrevocably in love. Though they were from opposite sides of the tracks, their love for one another seemed to defy the realities of life in the small town of Oriental, North Carolina. But as the summer of their senior year came to a close, unforeseen events would tear the young couple apart, setting them on radically divergent paths. Now, twenty-five years later, Amanda and Dawson are summoned back to Oriental for the funeral of Tuck Hostetler, the mentor who once gave shelter to their high school romance. Neither has lived the life they imagined . . . and neither can forget the passionate first love that forever changed their lives. As Amanda and Dawson carry out the instructions Tuck left behind for them, they realize that everything they thought they knew -- about Tuck, about themselves, and about the dreams they held dear -- was not as it seemed. Forced to confront painful memories, the two former lovers will discover undeniable truths about the choices they have made. And in the course of a single, searing weekend, they will ask of the living, and the dead: Can love truly rewrite the past?

The Leopard - Giuseppe Di Lampedusa 2007-11-06

Set in the 1860s, The Leopard tells the spellbinding story of a decadent, dying Sicilian aristocracy threatened by the approaching forces of democracy and revolution. The dramatic sweep and richness of observation, the seamless intertwining of public and private worlds, and the grasp of human frailty imbue The Leopard with its particular melancholy beauty and power, and place it among the greatest historical novels of our time. Although Giuseppe di Lampedusa had long had the book in mind, he began writing it only in his late fifties; he died at age sixty, soon after the manuscript was rejected as unpublishable. In his introduction, Giocchino Lanza Tomasi, Lampedusa's nephew, gives us a detailed history of the initial publication and the various editions that followed. And he includes passages Lampedusa wrote for the book that were omitted by the original Italian editors. Here, finally, is the definitive edition of this brilliant and timeless novel. (Translated from the Italian by Archibald Colquhoun.)

Nineteen Eighty-Four - George Orwell 2021-01-09

"Nineteen Eighty-Four: A Novel", often published as "1984", is a dystopian social science fiction novel by English novelist George Orwell. It was published on 8 June 1949 by Secker & Warburg as Orwell's ninth and final book completed in his lifetime. Thematically, "Nineteen Eighty-Four" centres on the consequences of totalitarianism, mass surveillance, and repressive regimentation of persons and behaviours within society. Orwell, himself a democratic socialist, modelled the authoritarian government in the novel after Stalinist Russia. More broadly, the novel examines the role of truth and facts within politics and the ways in which they are manipulated. The story takes place in an imagined future, the year 1984, when much of the world has fallen victim to perpetual war, omnipresent government surveillance, historical negationism, and propaganda. Great Britain, known as Airstrip One, has become a province of a totalitarian superstate named Oceania that is ruled by the Party who employ the Thought Police to persecute individuality and independent thinking. Big Brother, the leader of the Party, enjoys an intense cult of personality despite the fact that he may not even exist. The protagonist, Winston Smith, is a diligent and skillful rank-and-file worker and Outer Party member who secretly hates the Party and dreams of rebellion. He enters into a forbidden relationship with a colleague, Julia, and starts to remember what life was like before the Party came to power.

If On A Winter's Night A Traveler - Italo Calvino 2012-12-11

These seemingly disparate characters gradually realize their connections to each other just as they realize that something is not quite right about their world. And it seems as though the answers might lie with Hawthorne Abendsen, a mysterious and reclusive author whose bestselling novel describes a world in which the US won the War... The Man in the High Castle is Dick at his best, giving readers a harrowing vision of the world that almost was. "The single most resonant and carefully imagined book of Dick's career." —New York Times

Arthur - Mikael Lindnord 2017-09-09

The epic true story of one man, a dog, and how they found each other As seen on an ESPN SC Featured documentary When you're racing 435 miles through the jungles and mountains of South America, the last thing you need is a stray dog tagging along. But that's exactly what happened to Mikael Lindnord, captain of a Swedish adventure racing team, when he threw a scruffy but dignified mongrel a meatball one afternoon. When the team left the next day, the dog followed. Try as they might, they couldn't lose him—and soon Mikael realized that he didn't want to. Crossing rivers, battling illness and injury, and struggling through some of the toughest terrain on the planet, the team and the dog walked together toward the finish line, where Mikael decided he would save the dog, now named Arthur, and bring him back to his family in Sweden, whatever it took. In compelling prose, illustrated with candid photographs, Arthur provides a testament to the amazing bond between dogs and people.

L'arcobaleno - D.H. Lawrence 2015-11-12T00:00:00+01:00

Publicato nel 1915 ma ritirato dopo pochi mesi perché giudicato scandaloso, L'arcobaleno è considerato uno dei migliori romanzi di D.H. Lawrence. Appassionante saga familiare a cavallo tra Ottocento e Novecento, sullo sfondo di un'Inghilterra dai convulsi mutamenti sociali, narra le vite delle donne della famiglia Brangwen: una madre schiva e avara nei sentimenti, una figlia che si lega per passione giovanissima e rimane prigioniera di un rapporto squilibrato, una giovane progressista che vorrebbe vivere la propria omosessualità, scontrandosi con la forza del tabù dell'epoca. Ognuna di loro fa parte di quella schiera di donne che mossero i primi decisivi passi verso l'emancipazione del ruolo femminile nella società, figure letterarie che hanno trovato qui un ruolo indimenticabile. Inserito dal «Guardian» tra le migliori cento opere letterarie della storia e adattato da Ken Russell per il cinema, così come il successivo Donne innamorate, torna, a un secolo di distanza dalla sua prima pubblicazione, un romanzo di Lawrence che ancora oggi riesce a raccontare stravolgimenti umani e sociali di cruciale importanza ed estrema modernità.

The Notebook - Nicholas Sparks 2014-06-24

Every so often a love story captures our hearts and becomes more than just a story - it becomes an experience to treasure and to share. The Notebook is such a book. It is a celebration of a passion both ageless and timeless, a tale of laughter and tears, and makes us believe in true love all over again. At thirty-one, Noah Calhoun is rebuilding his life on the coast after the horrors of World War II, but he is haunted by images of the girl he lost more than a decade earlier. Allie Nelson is about to marry into wealth and security, but she cannot stop thinking about the boy who stole her heart years ago. And so begins an extraordinary tale of a love so strong it turns tragedy into strength and endures everything . . . 2014 marks the 10th anniversary of the film adaptation of The Notebook starring Ryan Gosling and Rachel McAdams. This new edition includes gorgeous colour photographs from the film, author Q & A, discussion questions and an exclusive chapter from The Longest Ride, the new Nicholas Sparks novel.

Sanctuary Line - Jane Urquhart 2013-09-03

Alice Munro hails Urquhart's "most compelling depiction of the sense of place in human lives." "Urquhart's writing is poetic, in the sense that it is beautifully compact and restrained when describing the most powerful emotions," says The Times. The author Claire Messud praises her as having "a great gift for the historical novel, for the melding of ideas, events and individuals into a significant whole." In Sanctuary Line Urquhart has created a nuanced and moving novel about family legacies, love, and betrayal. Solitary, nostalgic Liz Crane returns to her family's now-deserted farmhouse--once the setting for countless happy summers spent on the northern shore of Lake Erie--to study the migratory habits of the Monarch butterfly. Encompassing all the colorful stories and blarney of successful Irish immigrants who have made the most of their relocation to North America, the Cranes' rich family history is now circumscribed by sadness. Liz's beloved cousin Amanda, a gifted military strategist, has been killed in Afghanistan, a loss that had been foreshadowed many years in the past by the disappearance of Amanda's charismatic father. Reflecting on the fragility and transience of human life and relations--mirrored in the butterflies' restless flight patterns and transcontinental migrations--Liz finds that love is there to be found where, and when, you least expect it.

The City of The Sun - Tommaso Campanella 2020-10-07

"The City of the Sun" is a philosophical work by the Italian Dominican philosopher Tommaso Campanella. It is an important early utopian work.

The book is presented as a dialogue between "a Grandmaster of the Knights Hospitaller and a Genoese Sea-Captain". Inspired by Plato's Republic and the description of Atlantis in Timaeus, it describes a theocratic society where goods, women and children are held in common. One of the most significant aspects of this community is the distribution of work. Once again Campanella engages in an explicit polemic with Aristotle, who had excluded artisans, peasants and those involved in manual labor from the category of full citizenship and from the highest levels of virtue.

Telephone Tales - Gianni Rodari 2020-09-08

Reminiscent of Scheherazade and One Thousand and One Nights, Gianni Rodari's Telephone Tales is many stories within a story. Every night, a traveling father must finish a bedtime story in the time that a single coin will buy. One night, it's a carousel that adults cannot comprehend, but whose operator must be some sort of magician, the next, it's a land filled with butter men who melt in the sunshine Awarded the Hans Christian Anderson Award in 1970, Gianni Rodari is widely considered to be Italy's most important children's author of the 20th century. Newly re-illustrated by Italian artist Valerio Vidali (The Forest), Telephone Tales entertains, while questioning and imagining other worlds.

Me and My Dad! - Alison Ritchie 2007

Memorie intime - Georges Simenon 2014-06-25T00:00:00+02:00

«"Save me Daddy" - I'm dying - I'm lost in the space, the silence of death» aveva scritto, poco prima di morire, Marie-Jo, la venticinquenne figlia minore di Georges Simenon. Il 19 maggio 1978, con un proiettile calibro 22, Marie-Jo si uccide nel suo appartamento di Parigi. È un suicidio annunciato, e del resto più volte tentato: dopo essere stata una bambina «difficile», Marie-Jo era entrata sin dall'adolescenza in un ciclo infernale di cliniche, fughe, ospedali psichiatrici. Come lei stessa ha chiesto, il corpo viene trasportato a Losanna e cremato, le ceneri disperse nel giardino della casa del padre. Da quel momento Simenon si immerge nella lettura delle lettere, delle agende, delle poesie e nell'ascolto delle cassette lasciate dalla figlia; e nel 1980 a settantasei anni, lui che dal febbraio del 1972 ha smesso di produrre romanzi compone febbrilmente queste "Memorie". Per commemorare la figlia, ma anche per placare insieme il dolore e i sensi di colpa, si affida alla forza inappellabile del ricordo, e dà vita a una sorta di grande affresco autobiografico, completato dalla raccolta dei pochi scritti che la ragazza, segnata da una irrisolta vocazione artistica, ha lasciato: il "Libro di Marie-Jo". Dedicate alla sua creatura perduta, le pagine di questa straordinaria «confessione» hanno in realtà un solo protagonista: lo stesso Simenon, qui al centro di quello che è forse il più imponente dei suoi romanzi, dove la sapienza del narratore si coniuga a una «cognizione del dolore» tutta nuova, e in qualche modo stupefacente per l'autore stesso.

Donne casentinesi - Francesco Pasetto 2015-07-12

«In questo libro si trovano le rappresentazioni o le vicissitudini particolari di alcune figure femminili del nostro passato. Attraverso di esse ognuno può ricostruire lo spirito delle epoche a cui appartengono. Queste donne sono state sia persone reali, in carne e ossa, sia immagini mitiche o allegoriche. Le memorie scritte e non scritte su di loro le ho scoperte nelle biblioteche e negli archivi, ma più ancora nei pellegrinaggi lungo i sentieri, su per i crinali, attraverso i borghi, i monasteri, i castelli del Casentino. [...] Perché dedicare tutti i medaglioni a figure femminili? Potrei rispondere semplicemente che ho voluto ristabilire un minimo di parità tra i generi. E credo che tutte le persone libere da pregiudizi si rendano conto di quanto siano necessarie operazioni dirette a ripristinare un equilibrio ampiamente alterato.»

Listen to the Music - Marion Billet 2015-10-01

A brand new series of sound-button board books which combines gorgeous illustrations with six high-quality sounds.

Three Floors Up - Eshkol Nevo 2017-10-10

THE BASIS FOR THE CANNES FILM FESTIVAL'S PALMA D'OR-NOMINATED FILM Set in an upper-middle-class Tel Aviv apartment building, this best-selling and warmly acclaimed Israeli novel examines the interconnected lives of its residents, whose turmoils, secrets, unreliable confessions, and problematic decisions reveal a society in the midst of an identity crisis. On the first floor, Arnon, a tormented retired officer who fought in the First Intifada, confesses to an army friend with a troubled military past how his obsession about his young daughter's safety led him to lose control and put his marriage in peril. Above Arnon lives Hani, known as "the widow," whose husband travels the world for his lucrative job while she stays at home with their two children, increasingly isolated and unstable. When her brother-in-law suddenly appears at their door begging her to hide him from loan sharks and the police, she agrees in spite of the risk to her family, if only to bring some emotional excitement into her life. On the top floor lives a former judge, Devora. Eager to start a new life in her retirement, Devora joins a social movement, desperately tries to reconnect with her estranged son, and falls in love with a man who isn't what he seems. A brilliant novelist, Eshkol Nevo vividly depicts how the grinding effects of social and political ills play out in the psyche of his flawed yet compelling characters, in often unexpected and explosive ways.

Show and Tell Me the World - Tom Schamp 2016-09-14

"From the depths of the sea to the energy of fall camping trips, peer inside Tom Schamp's whimsical and topsy-turvy world to see day-to-day life detailed and enlivened.
