The Moon - Maria Mondin 2014-03-09

Introduction Written by the illustrator Barbara Pelizzoli Recently my mother invited me to illustrate a children's poem. After reading the manuscript, those starry nights when my mom would recite this poem to us children, came back to mind. I never tired of listening to it as the poem always enchanted me. It is with great honor that now, after many years, I present to this generation a timeless poem. I humbly portray these sweet words with my art, hoping to inspire tenderness in the souls of the youngsters and bring them beautiful dreams in these starry nights. This poem, so dear to me, it is now for you. "The Moon" by Mamma Maria My children dear, come close, come near. I want to tell you why from up in the sky the Moon's face so bright shines in the sea at night.

La Magica Notte di Natale - Sally M. Veillette 2021-11-27

Nel 1823 il pastore protestante Clemente Clarke Moore, proveniente dalla campagna dello stato di New York, catturò l'immaginazione dell'intera nazione con una simpatica poesia che descriveva Babbo Natale con un abito rosso ed una slitta trainata da renne. Questo libro, tradotto in italiano, porta la magia che Moore ha catturato nella sua poesia ai bambini di tutto il mondo. L'ispirazione è nata dal desiderio di Sally di condividere con sua figlia la poesia natalizia, che ha tanto a cuore, in entrambe le lingue, unendo le due culture. Ci sono voluti diversi anni — e molti amici bilingui — per perfezionare la versione italiana della poesia. Sally spera possiate apprezzarne semplicità, rima, ritmo... e, soprattutto, il suo spirito natalizio.

The Creature of Habit - Jennifer E. Smith 2021-11-09

A story for creatures of habit big and small who might be surprised by the joy of trying something new. On the island of Habit, there lives a very big creature with big teeth, big eyes, and very big feet. Every day the creature does the exact same things in the exact same order. He gets up in the morning, eats three pineapples and two bananas, collects shells, says hello to the fish, rocks, trees, and crabs of the island before he eats three more pineapples and two bananas, and finally goes to bed. It is exactly the way the big creature likes it. That is, until a small boat carrying a very small creature with small teeth, small eyes, and very, very small feet arrives on the island. At first the big creature is excited to show the little creature around and explain how things are done on the island, but the small creature has his own ideas. He does not like pineapples or bananas, but he does like coconuts. Instead of saying hello to the fish, he swims with them. And instead of collecting shells, he collects...well, everything else. Also, the little creature does something different every day--it's madness, thinks the big creature. Can these two creatures learn to appreciate each other? Is the island big enough for both of them? Told with heart and humor, this is a story about being open to new ways of doing things.

My First Malayalam Alphabets Picture Book with English Translations - Indu S. 2019-09-20

Learn Italian For Kids - Giorgio Mills 2021-02-05

THE FIRST BOOK THAT TEACHES THE BASIC ITALIAN WORDS TO THE LITTLE ONES WITHOUT LOOKING LIKE A SCHOOL BOOK. This book teaches children the same things as a grammar book, but through fun stories to read. This is because, for a child, there's no better way to learn a language than by listening to stories. Think about it: Stories are engaging, compelling, keep the children's attention high, and are able to teach important things without the children even noticing it. Conversely, grammar books (those filled with infinite lists of words, verbs, idioms, and so on) tend to make children RUN AWAY. They're so bored...

Imagine that stories are the pole of the magnet that attracts children, while grammar books are the opposite one that pushes them away. So, what will children learn by reading to these short, fun, and relaxing stories? Let me break this down for you: - Letters of the Alphabet - Numbers - The Days of the Week - Months of the Year - Objects in the House - Clothing - Food - Emotions - Animals Children won't even notice they're learning all of that! The little ones can read to the stories during the day while playing, or before going to sleep as bedtime stories (we know that listening to something before falling asleep causes it to be imprinted in our memory). So, whenever children will listen to these stories... ..Let them become bilingual effortlessly - because once they grow up it becomes much more difficult. Order Now
