The Girl in the Missing Poster - Barbara Copperthwaite 2021-02-23

MISSING - Have you seen this girl? Nineteen-year-old Leila Hawkins was last seen on 24 June, 1994, when she left her parents' anniversary party early and ran into the stormy night wearing her twin sister Stella's long red coat. She was never seen again. I wrap my arms around the tree trunk, pressing my cheek against it until the bark digs in and the missing poster is finally secured. I try not to look at the photograph on it. At the features so similar to mine. Perhaps this will be the year someone comes forward. Were crucial mistakes made by detectives from the very beginning? Could the pressure of living two lives have led my sister to run away - or even end it? Or did someone in her tight circle of friends and family have reason to want her gone? Someone out there must know something. But the last thing I ever expect is a direct response from the person who took Leila. Wracked with guilt and completely alone in the world without the other half of me, I have no choice but to agree to his strange request: private, intimate details of my life in return for answers. As the final moments of my sister's life play out before me, I feel closer to her than I ever dreamed I'd be again. So close, it could almost be happening to me. But when I finally realise who is behind this terrifying tragedy, will I make it out alive? I'll do anything to protect my daughter... When I pick my beloved daughter Poppy up from school one afternoon, my mind races when I see the little girl holding Poppy's hand. With the same heart-shaped face, long brown hair and dark eyes, the two girls look identical. In fact, they look like sisters. Is the secret I've been holding on to for so long about to be revealed? That night, I cuddle Poppy even harder, desperately trying to decide what to do. And then my husband's phone vibrates. A message. And then another. And another. All from a number I don't recognise. Is someone going to tell my husband what I did? Could I be about to lose everything I have worked so hard to protect? But I've spent so long hiding the truth, I never stopped to wonder if I was the only liar in the family... The only thing I'm sure of is that nobody is going to take my child away from me.
