Wire Wrap Tutorial. Step by Step Master Classes. Pendants with Their Own Hands. - Valeriy Vorobev 2019-02-10

Wire Wrap tutorial. Step by step master classes. Pendants with their own hands. The book has 106 pages, more than 200 high-resolution photos. As always, there are many photos in good quality, that consistently explain the whole process of creating jewelry. All explanations are in English. I asked on a purpose an interpreter to translate my new lessons. If you have any wishes, feel free to write me. I read all your messages. In advance, please excuse me for not always responding to you. I do not speak English myself, I use Internet translation services. It translates the text poorly, but I understand the general meaning. In the magazine there are links to the videos for a more detailed study of the material. Videos are in Russian. But after reading the magazine, you will not need a translation. And the benefit of watching will undoubtedly be great. I will try to immediately determine the material presented in this book. The lessons are quite complex, beginners probably will not succeed. Although, on the other hand, who knows where this boundary of the transition from beginner to master? Maybe it's time to take up a serious business and do something worthwhile? What do we need for work? Wire. I use copper wire in my tutorial. And this does not necessarily mean that you should use copper wire. Use any wire. I made similar ornaments from copper wire, wire from nickel silver, brass, bronze and sterling silver. In addition, you can combine, use two, three types of wires in one decoration. The recommendation will be one. Use appropriate wire thickness. In the book, I make pendants of wire 1 mm (18 ga) and 0.4 mm (26

ga) thick. You can use wire with a thickness of 0.8 mm (20 ga) and 0.3 mm (28 ga) Cabochons and beads made of natural stones. Smaller or larger cabochons are allowed. It is best to use stones of volcanic origin. Instruments. You will need a minimum set of hand tools for the job. I will not go long in details about the tools. If you have already tried your hand at working with wire, you should understand what you need. For applying the patina on the wire, you can use special solutions. Valeriy Vorobev
